Complaints Policy

Next Review May 2018

Introduction

Castleford Park Junior Academy prides itself on the quality of teaching provided for its pupils. However, if parents have concerns, they can expect any issues to be treated seriously by the school in accordance with this policy document.

A 'concern' may be defined as 'an expression of worry or doubt over an issue considered to be important for which reassurances are sought'. A complaint may be generally defined as 'an expression of dissatisfaction however made, about actions taken or lack of action'.

The Complaints Policy has been created to deal with any complaint against a member of staff or the school as a whole, relating to aspects of the school or the provision of facilities or services.

- A complaint can be brought by a parent of a registered child at the school or any person who has been provided with a service/facility at the school. This person is referred to as the complainant.
- Schools may have a nominated member of staff with responsibility for the operation and management of the school complaints procedure. This member of staff, however, may not necessarily be the Headteacher. At Castleford Park Junior Academy, the Class Teacher would be the first point of contact for pupil concerns, the office for any administration queries and the Deputy head or Headteacher for any day to day concerns that have not been adequately addressed by class teacher or admin staff or a formal complaint.
- A concern becomes a complaint only when the complainant asserts the school has acted wrongly in some significant decision, action or failure to take action.
- Even when a complaint has been made it can be resolved or withdrawn at any stage.

Aims

In line with the Education Act 2002, Castleford Park Junior Academy will:

- Encourage the resolution of problems by informal means wherever possible.
- Allow swift handling with established time-limits for action and keeping people informed of any progress.
- Ensure a full and fair investigation by an independent person where necessary.
- Respect people's desire for confidentiality.
- Address all the points at issue and provide an effective response and appropriate redress where necessary.
- Admin, teaching staff or senior leadership team to provide information to the school's governing body so that services can be improved.

Dealing with concerns informally

- The school recognises that a vast majority of complaints and concerns can be resolved informally.

- The complainant must feel able to raise concerns and complaints with members of staff, either in person, by telephone or in writing. A preliminary discussion may be undertaken to help clarify if he or she is making a complaint or expressing an opinion, and whether they wish to take it further.
- The complainant should be able to bring a friend to any discussion.
- The member of staff dealing with the concern should make sure that the complainant is clear what action (if any) or monitoring of the situation has been agreed.
- Mutually convenient appointments maybe necessary due to working commitments of school staff.
- The process should be completed speedily and concluded verbally with written school records in appropriate detail.
- Where no satisfactory solution has been found, the complainant should be informed that he or she will need to consider whether to make an appointment with the Headteacher or to make a formal complaint in writing to the Headteacher.
- To assist in this process a complaint form should be provided. (See Appendix 1)

Monitoring and recording complaints

At all stages of the complaints procedure the following information should be recorded:

- Name of the complainant.
- Date and time at which complaint was made.
- Details of the nature of the complaint.
- Desired outcome of the complainant.
- How the complaint is being investigated (including written records of any interviews held).
- Results and conclusions of investigations.
- Any action taken.
- The complainant's response.
- Record of any subsequent action if required.

Special Circumstances

- If a social services authority decides to investigate a situation, this may postpone or supersede investigation by the Headteacher or Governing Body.
- Where a matter can be resolved through a legal appeal, it will not be considered as a formal complaint. The key areas are: admissions decisions; attendance; certain decisions relating to formal assessment of special educational needs; and decisions to permanently exclude a child.

Complaints Procedure

Stage 1 - Complaint Heard by Staff Member

- Parent/carer discusses their concerns with child's class teacher, or if they prefer another member of the school's teaching staff or admin staff.
- If the first approach is made to a Governor, the next step would be to refer the complainant to the appropriate person and advise them about the procedure.
- Governors should not act unilaterally on an individual complaint outside the formal procedure or be involved at the early stages, in case they are needed to sit on a panel at a later stage of the procedure.
- If a resolution cannot be sought at this level, or the complainant is dissatisfied at the outcome of these initial discussions, then the parent/carer may wish to escalate the complaint to the next level of the procedure.

Stage 2 - Complaint Heard by Headteacher (where the class teacher has not resolved the problem or the complaint is of a serious nature)

- The parent/carer should request an appointment to see the Headteacher. This should be as soon as reasonably practical to avoid any possible worsening of the issue.
- The Headteacher may delegate the task of collating the information to another staff member but not the decision on the action to be taken.
- If the complaint is against a member of staff, the Headteacher should talk to the staff member against whom the complaint has been made. If necessary, the Headteacher should interview witnesses and take statements from those involved.
- The Headteacher should keep reasonable written records of meetings, telephone conversations and other documentation.
- The Headteacher will investigate fully and communicate findings and/or resolutions to the complainant(s) verbally or in writing depending on the nature of the issue.
- If the matter cannot be resolved at this point further information and investigation is sought, however Stage 2 should be completed in 15 school days. However, it is recognised that where the case is complex, it may prove difficult to meet this timetable. In such cases, the Headteacher should write to the complainant giving a revised target date.
- If the parent/carer is not satisfied with the outcome at this stage then the complaint can be moved to the next level for the Chair of Governors to resolve (Stage 3).
- If the concern or complaint is against the Headteacher, in the first instance the complainant will need to write in confidence to the chair of Governor at the school. The chair of Governor will seek to resolve the issue informally before, if necessary, moving to Stage 3.

Stage 3 – Complaint Heard by Chair of Governors

- The Chair of Governors will fully investigate the complaint and meet with the Headteacher and SLT/Teacher/Staff involved to resolve the matter amicably.

- If a solution cannot be agreed at this point the complaint will be heard by the Governing Bodies' Complaints Appeal Panel (Stage 4)

Stage 4 – Complaint heard by Governing Bodies' Complaints Appeal Panel (CAP)

- Complaints at this stage should be made in writing and addressed to the Chair of School Governors no later than 10 school days following confirmation of a Stage 2 outcome. The Chair of Governors, or a nominated Governor, will convene a GB CAP.
- Written acknowledgement of the complaint will be made within 3 school days of receipt of the written correspondence informing the complainant their complaint will be heard within 20 school days.
- A CAP will be arranged with 3 members of the Governing Body and the complainant. 5 days' notice will be given to all attending. The Clerk/Chair of the CAP should write to the complainant to explain how the review will be conducted. The letter should be copied to the Headteacher.
- At the meeting everyone's case will be put across and discussed. The CAP should reconsider the issues raised in the original complaint and not confine themselves to consideration of procedural issues.
- The meeting should allow for:
 - The complainant to explain his or her complaint and the Headteacher to explain the reasons for his or her decision.
 - The Headteacher to question the complainant about the complaint and the complainant to question the Headteacher.
 - The CAP to have an opportunity to question both the complainant and the Headteacher.
 - Any party to have the right to bring witnesses (subject to the approval of the Chair of CAP) and all parties having the right to question all the witnesses; and
 - A final statement by the Headteacher and complainant.
- A written response to the complainant will be made within 15 school days. The letter will explain if there are any further rights of appeal and, if so, to whom they need to be addressed. An appeal can only relate to how the complaint has been handled and not the Governing Bodies' panel decision (outcome).

Role of the Secretary of State, Department for Education

If the complainant is unhappy with the way in which the school has dealt with the complaint, they may be able to approach the Secretary of State, Department for Education to intervene.

For the Secretary of State to intervene following a complaint, he needs to be sure that either:

- The school has acted or is proposing to act unreasonably in the exercise or performance of its functions imposed by or under the Education Act 1996; or

- The school has failed to discharge any duty imposed by or for the purposes of the Education Act 1996.

Roles & Responsibilities

The Remit of the CAP

The panel can:

- Dismiss the complaint in whole or in part.
- Uphold the complaint in whole or in part.
- Decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint.
- Recommend changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not recur.

There are several points which any Governor sitting on a complaints panel needs to remember:

- It is important that the appeal hearing is independent and impartial and that it is seen to be so. No Governor may sit on the panel if they have had a prior involvement in the complaint or in the circumstances surrounding it. In deciding the make-up of the panel, Governors need to try and ensure that it is a cross-section of the categories of Governor and sensitive to the issues of race, gender and religious affiliation.
- The aim of the hearing, which needs to be held in private, will always be to resolve the complaint and achieve reconciliation between the school and the complainant. However, it has to be recognised the complainant might not be satisfied with the outcome if the hearing does not find in their favour. It may only be possible to establish the facts and make recommendations which will satisfy the complainant that his or her complaint has been taken seriously.
- An effective panel will acknowledge that many complainants feel nervous and inhibited in a formal setting. Parents often feel emotional when discussing an issue that affects their child. The panel chair will ensure that the proceedings are as welcoming as possible. The layout of the room will set the tone and care is needed to ensure the setting is informal and not adversarial.
- Extra care needs to be taken when the complainant is a child. Careful consideration of the atmosphere and proceedings will ensure that the child does not feel intimidated. The panel needs to be aware of the views of the child and give them equal consideration to those of adults. Where the child's parent is the complainant, it would be helpful to give the parent the opportunity to say which parts of the hearing, if any, the child needs to attend.
- The Governors sitting on the panel need to be aware of the complaints procedure.

The Role of the Clerk

Schools are strongly advised that any panel or group of Governor considering complaints be clerked. The clerk would be the contact point for the complainant and be required to:

- Set the date, time and venue of the hearing, ensuring that the dates are convenient to all parties and that the venue and proceedings are accessible.
- Collate any written material and send it to the parties in advance of the hearing.
- Meet and welcome the parties as they arrive at the hearing.
- Record the proceedings.
- Notify all parties of the panel's decision.

The Role of the Chair of the Governing Body or the Nominated Governor

The nominated Governor role:

- Check that the correct procedure has been followed.
- If a hearing is appropriate, notify the clerk to arrange the panel.

The Role of the Chair of the Panel

The Chair of the Panel has a key role, ensuring that:

- The remit of the panel is explained to the parties and each party has the opportunity of putting their case without undue interruption.
- The issues are addressed.
- Key findings of fact are made.
- Parents and others who may not be used to speaking at such a hearing are put at ease.
- The hearing is conducted in an informal manner with each party treating the other with respect and courtesy.
- The panel is open minded and acting independently.
- No member of the panel has a vested interest in the outcome of the proceedings or any involvement in an earlier stage of the procedure; each side is given the opportunity to state their case and ask questions.
- Written material is seen by all parties. If a new issue arises it would be useful to give all parties the opportunity to consider and comment on it.

Example letter

An example of a letter that the Chair of the Governing Body may wish to send to the complainant upon receipt of a complaint at Stage 3 for consideration by the Governing Body.

Dear Name

Thank you for your letter dated setting out the reasons why you are not satisfied with the Headteacher's response to your complaint about

I write to let you know that I will be arranging for a Complaints Appeal Panel (CAP) to consider your complaint in accordance with our school's complaints procedure.

As explained in the procedure, the Clerk/Chair of the CAP will let you know in writing how the CAP intends to consider your complaint.

(or in the case of complaints against the Headteacher)

I have received your complaint against the Headteacher ofSchool.

I write to let you know that I have forwarded a copy of your complaint to the Headteacher with a request that s/he respond within ten school days to the issues raised in the complaint.

A copy of the Headteacher's response will be sent to you as soon as possible.

If you are not satisfied with the Headteacher's response, I will arrange for a Complaints Appeal Panel to consider your complaint in accordance with Stage 3 of the attached complaints procedure.

As explained in the procedure, the Clerk/Chair of the Complaints Appeal Panel will let you know in writing how the complaint will proceed.

Yours sincerely,

Chair of the Governing Body
